

He looked like Michael Cera #standupcomedy

1 MIN · YOUTUBE · HTTPS://WWW.YOUTUBE.COM/WATCH?V=0TGDxGHIA3I

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0TGDxGHIA3I>

SUMMARY

The conversation revolves around personal experiences with autism, homelessness, and family dynamics, highlighting the complexities of identity and societal perceptions. The dialogue features humor and candid exchanges about serious topics, including mental health and the impact of upbringing.

- Discussion on autism diagnosis and personal experiences.
- Humorously addresses stereotypes about race and speech.
- The speaker mentions a period of homelessness and running away from home.
- Family dynamics are explored, including feelings of being misunderstood.
- The conversation touches on societal perceptions of behavior and identity.
- The exchange highlights the contrast between appearances and personal experiences.
- There is a blend of serious topics with light-hearted banter.

Aren't you autistic? How did you get diagnosed? What did that look like? >> Oh, my mom was like, "Oh, you're a little bit off." >> Why do you sound black? >> What's that? Is that autism? >> That would be awesome. If that was a form of autism like, "Oh [_] baby." Did you grow up in the hood or something? >> Well, you know, I was homeless for a little bit and kind of, you know, >> you were homeless for a little bit. a little bit.

>> Wait, so you were homeless and then you came back home and your mom was like, "You're [_] weird. >> Why were you homeless?" >> Ran away. I did not like my family. >> Do you have abusive family? >> What? >> Oh, that's your mom. Okay, great. >> I just I just cut a hole in this and jump out. I painted it like a road and just started running on it. Why did he run away? Mom, >> he was just whining when he was 16.

>> Oh, you're saying whining. You're black, too. What in the hell? Just so you know, just so you guys know, you can't see her. She's like the whitest, sweetest, blondest, blouse ass wearing. Just a white just a J C Penney lady. A [_] In fact, this mother was laughing. That was not what I expected. Oh my god. Oh, this [_] [_] You running around?