SUMMARY

The speaker emphasizes that true manifestation transcends physical and psychological realms, requiring a deep embodiment of one's desires and visions. They share a personal story of deciding to move to America at age 12, illustrating the power of focused dreaming and visualization in achieving one's goals.

- Manifestation involves embodying desires at a spiritual level, not just a physical or psychological one.
- The speaker highlights the importance of having a singular, clear vision for manifestation.
- Personal experience: At age 12, the speaker committed to the dream of moving to America despite financial constraints.
- Visualization is crucial; one must imagine not just the outcome but also how they will feel and act in that scenario.
- Manifestation requires daily focus and commitment to the envisioned goal.
- The concept of manifestation is powerful and can significantly impact one's life.

though world of manifestation occurred not at the physical not even at the psychological manifestation only occurs if you are willing to be at the edge of the physical the psychological and lean into and better still fully embody capitalized and revitalize every cell of your being in the realm of the transcendent and spiritual so what does it mean to manifest obviously you are here because you're intrigued by it because a part of you believes you are a manifestor and I am manifest are right it's like it's become kind of a cliched run-of-the-mill term but to me the word manifestation could be possibly one of the most powerful concepts in my life I still remember as a young Indian girl at the age of 12 it was at the age of 12 that I decided I'm going to America

that's it and my family would say to me why not England or why not Australia we have relatives here and I said I am going to America I've never been out of the country America was a long shot you know it was hard to get there we didn't have the financial means but at the age of 12 I began to dream I would dream of how are the roads in America what kind of trees do they have what does the pavement look like do people look like like regular people what kind of clothes do they wear and within my dream space which is an extension of the physical and psychological I began to create imagery around not only the vision of America the vision of the outcome the vision of the vision but how I would be in it so in every example I give you there are the tools for manifestation you can't just put something on a vision board you have to concomitant Li dream about it every single day focus on the clear one vision of that entity you can't okay maybe I'll go to London and maybe I'll go to do you know Scotland and maybe I'll go to Tibet know one vision and then you have to imagine yourself in it all of you are intrigued by the idea of manifestation and you should be
