

Kidsstoppress.com:Book Launch of Young Chefs by Vikas Khanna

2 MIN • YOUTUBE • HTTPS://WWW.YOUTUBE.COM/WATCH?V=_0VScVJa7kM

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_0VScVJa7kM

SUMMARY

The speaker discusses their passion for the culinary profession, highlighting its cultural significance and personal favorites in Mumbai's vibrant food scene. They express pride in representing Indian culture through food and share their love for various local dishes.

- The speaker is promoting their 13th book.
- They find chefs to be an attractive and powerful profession.
- The culinary field has the ability to represent entire cultures.
- The speaker feels proud to be part of India's culinary revolution.
- They share their favorite restaurants and local food stalls in Mumbai.
- The speaker enjoys a variety of dishes, including Sadar Papaji and Trishna.
- They mention the appeal of sweet flavors, especially for children, while acknowledging health considerations.

Speaker 1: This is my 13th book bar. I. I think chefs are sexy. It's a beautiful profession.

Speaker 1: This is the only profession which has such a big power. We can represent a whole culture through India is going through

Speaker 2: a

Speaker 1: huge revolution, and I feel proud standing over.

Speaker 2: My

Speaker 1: favorite restaurant in Mumbai. I love Armenia, but I. I'm obsessed with Babaji and the local food, the stalls and everything. Also I love Sadar Papaji. I love Som and oh, God, I want to start. I love Trishna. I love.

Speaker 2: I

Speaker 1: think kids have a sweet

Speaker 2: tooth,

Speaker 1: so anything like lactose also in cream. Not very healthy, but I do feel a pinch of balance of flavor. It.