SUMMARY

A simple method to save money and promote sustainability involves exchanging Lego sets among friends and family. By sharing and trading Lego kits, you can provide your children with new experiences while reducing waste.

- Children often lose interest in Lego sets after a few days.
- Create a family WhatsApp group to facilitate Lego exchanges.
- Offer your Lego sets along with the instruction booklets to friends.
- This practice saves money by reusing toys instead of buying new ones.
- Exchanging Legos helps reduce environmental waste.
- Encourages creativity and new play experiences for children.
- Share this idea with others to promote community engagement.
